

Food Service Sanitation Manager Certification (FSSMC) Classes

Fulton County Health Department

700 East Oak Street, Canton, IL 61520 • (309) 647-1134, Ext. 230

The FSSMC class uses the National Restaurant Association's ServSafe™ program, which incorporates lectures, videos, games, and hands-on activities to teach important food safety topics. Participants will learn to implement essential food safety practices and create a culture of food safety at their establishment. Total class time is approximately 8.5 hours, plus up to two hours for the exam. Students may either purchase their own ServSafe™ textbook from ServSafe.com (approximately $50), or borrow a textbook from us.

Cost: $60 class + $38 exam = $98
Class size is limited. Payment must be received at least 10 days prior to class.

Location: Room 307 at the Fulton County Health Department in Canton

Schedule: The class is held on two consecutive Wednesdays. The exam is given during the afternoon on the second day of class. You must attend both days of class to take the exam and receive certification. Failure to attend any part of the class without prior approval forfeits class fee. A one-hour lunch break and several short breaks are built into the class schedule each day.
