

2023 Certified Food Protection Manager (CFPM) Classes

Fulton County Health Department

700 East Oak Street, Canton, IL 61520 • (309) 647-1134, Ext. 230

The CFPM class uses the National Restaurant Association’s ServSafe™ program, which incorporates lectures, videos, and hands-on activities to teach important food safety topics. Participants will learn to implement essential food safety practices and create a culture of food safety at their establishment. Total class time is approximately 9 hours, plus up to two hours for the exam. Students may either borrow a textbook from us or purchase their own textbook to keep from ServSafe.com (approximately $50). Exams are available in Chinese, English, French Canadian, Japanese, Korean, Spanish, and in large print. Please let us know in advance if you need an exam in a different language, or an exam accommodation.

Cost: $75 class + $50 exam = $125
Class size is limited. Payment must be received at least 10 days prior to class.

Location: Room 307 at the Fulton County Health Department in Canton

Schedule: The class is held on two consecutive Wednesdays. The exam is given during the afternoon on the second day of class. You must attend both days of class to take the exam and receive certification. Failure to attend any part of the class without prior approval forfeits the class fee. A one-hour lunch break and other short breaks are built into the class schedule each day.
